

Avoid costly downtime from poor performing slitters.

- Standard ECS cameras are positioned to view one or more slitters
- These cameras can be standalone or part of a web inspection group
- When the slitter channel is closed – an alarm via PLC or OPC is sent to the mill control system
- Dynamic thresholding and noise templates allow extreme accuracy in harsh environments

Do not let a slitter position reduce your process efficiency.
visit us at www.ecsuptime.com